MEET NICOLE

Nicole Nuzzo has been designated by the State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization as a Certified Family Law Specialist. She has also been named as one of the top ten family law attorneys in California for client satisfaction by the American Institute of Legal Counsel. She works in our Newport Beach office where she dedicates her practice to family law matters involving child custody and visitation, child and spousal support, domestic abuse, and the characterization and distribution of the community estate. She also drafts, negotiates and reviews Premarital and Post-Nuptial Agreements. Ms. Nuzzo prides herself in acting as an aggressive advocate for her clients, promoting settlement and always ensuring that they are prepared to litigate a case if necessary.

Ms. Nuzzo was born and raised in Staten Island, New York. She graduated with departmental honors from the State University of New York (SUNY) College at Oneonta with a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science. Ms. Nuzzo attended Thomas Jefferson School of Law in San Diego, California, and graduated Cum Laude with her Juris Doctorate in 2011. Prior to joining Bremer Whyte Brown O'Meara, LLP, Ms. Nuzzo worked as an attorney with two of Orange County's preeminent family law firms. Ms. Nuzzo has also worked as an adjunct law professor teaching community property. She is a graduate of the National Institute of Trial Advocacy (NITA) Family Law Institute, a worldwide leader in advocacy skills training for litigation attorneys.

Ms. Nuzzo is a member of the Orange County Bar Association, a member of the board for the Orange County Bar Association's Family Law Section and serves as a member of the OCBA Professionalism and Ethics Committee, a selective blue-ribbon committee comprised of members appointed by the Orange County Bar Association President. She is also an executive committee member of her ProVisors group developing relationships with trusted advisor to benefit her clients
