

The Orange County Bar Association

Annual Food Drive

The OCBA has partnered with the Community Action Partnership of Orange County's Food Bank to help provide relief to those in need.

Over 450,000 Orange County residents are at risk of hunger EVERY MONTH.

The majority are children and elderly.

The food bank experiences a shortage of donations during February and March.

Items needed:

- ✓ Canned Foods
- ✓ Baby Items (diapers, formula, baby food)
- ✓ Dried Beans, Rice, & Pasta
- ✓ Personal Care Items (soap, toothpaste)
- ✓ Bottled Juice & Water
- ✓ Powdered Milk
- ✓ Cereal & Oatmeal

Did You Know?

- One dollar covers about four meals.
- A barrel hold up to 300 lbs. of food.
- 100-150 lbs. feeds a family of approximately four for a week.

Please no glass containers. No perishables.

The highest demand is for items with a long shelf life in retail size packages.

You can also participate in the OCBA Virtual Food Drive at www.ocfoodbank.org (Under Food Drive information) to make a donation online until the end of March.
