

Western State University College of Law's Diversity Committee, Student Organizations and the Orange County Bar Association invite you to a dynamic event:

The Annual Diversity and the Law Forum “Contemporary Insights to Diversity in the Legal Community”

This forum is designed to increase awareness of the unique legal challenges that arise when working within an ethnically diverse legal community.

Wednesday, March 10, 2010

4:00 pm to 5:00 pm – Networking Reception – room 101

5:00 pm to 6:30 pm – Forum Program – room 110

6:30 pm to 7:30 pm – Networking Reception – room 101

1111 N. State College Blvd., Fullerton, CA 92831

Keynote Speaker:

The Honorable Richard T. Fields

Presiding Judge of the Riverside County Superior Court

5:00 pm promptly

The 3 Panel discussions led by local practitioners will include:

- Panelists include Orange County Bar Association President Lei Lei Wang Ekvall who will offer insights on the bar associations' role in networking, mentoring and career advancement for minority lawyers.
- Career placement and diversity recruitment in the public and private sector.
- Issues for legal practice with a multi-cultural, multi-ethnic client base.

RSVP: (714) 459-1101 or adm@wsulaw.edu