

ORANGE COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

Pro Bono Opportunities

The Orange County Bar Association (OCBA) develops opportunities for attorneys in Orange County to volunteer their legal expertise to increase access to justice. In addition to opportunities for pro bono service through the Public Law Center (PLC), attorney volunteers are always needed for the following projects:

Domestic Violence Project

Provides training for attorney volunteers who participate in legal clinics held at Orange County domestic violence shelters in Santa Ana and Ladera Ranch in the evenings once every month. This legal clinic assists domestic violence victims with completion of court documents. Volunteers also accept cases from the PLC.

Guardianship Project

Provides training for attorney volunteers who participate in legal clinics held at the Lamoreaux Justice Center every Monday afternoon from 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. (excluding court holidays). This legal clinic assists caregivers with completion of court documents to gain guardianship of children. Volunteers also accept cases from the PLC.

Bankruptcy Project

Provides training for attorneys who volunteer at legal clinics held at the Orange County Bankruptcy Court in Santa Ana. These clinics help low-income pro se debtors understand their rights regarding reaffirmation agreements and Chapter 7 filings.

Family Law Basic Training

Provides training for attorneys in basic family law issues. Attorneys put their new skills to work by providing legal services to two (2) family law clients from the PLC. PLC co-sponsors this program with the OCBA.

For more information about pro bono opportunities, please contact Public Services Administrator Tracy Hermans at (949) 440-6700, ext. 128 or email thermans@ocbar.org.

If you would like to receive more information on pro bono opportunities, please fill out the following form and return to the OCBA at OCBA, Attn: Tracy Hermans, P.O. Box 6130, Newport Beach, CA 92658-6130

Name: _____

Firm: _____

Address: _____

Phone: (_____) - _____ - _____ Fax: (_____) - _____ - _____

Email Address: _____

Thank you for your interest!