

Founding Partner Awarded OC Trial Lawyer of the Year

OC American Board of Trial Advocates honors Mark P. Poliquin

December 14, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Laguna Hills, CA- Mark P. Poliquin, a Founding Partner with Doug DeGrave of Poliquin & DeGrave LLP in Laguna Hills, CA, was named OC Trial Lawyer of the Year by the OC Chapter of American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) on Tuesday, December 7, 2010 during the Annual Member's Dinner in Newport Beach.

Poliquin, 55, of Laguna Niguel, is a national board member of ABOTA and Past President of the Orange County Chapter of ABOTA, a legal professional association that recognizes attorneys who display skill, civility and integrity.

Poliquin has tried numerous jury trials in his 30-year legal career with recent wins in two dental malpractice cases, both full jury trials in November 2010.

“This is a true honor,” says Poliquin of his award, “I strive to meet ABOTA’s high standards of integrity, honor and courtesy in my legal practice and feel deeply appreciative to the members of my chapter for this recognition.”

In the community, Poliquin lectures extensively to dental and medical associations and he serves as an Eagle Scout Advisor to Troop 12 in San Juan Capistrano.
