Invites You and Your Family to Volunteer

RESTORATION OF UPPER NEWPORT BAY PRESERVE

An OCBA Community Outreach Committee Activity

Event Co-Chairs: Adam Johnson, Linda Kwoun, Sara Parker and Anne Rawlinson

Sunday, June 14, 2015

9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Join your fellow OCBA members for this unique opportunity to help restore and preserve the Newport Bay. Help to remove invasive vegetation and plant native vegetation to provide increased habitats for wildlife.

All ages welcome (adult guardian required if under 16).

This OC Parks restoration event will be held at or near the Peter & Mary Muth Interpretive Center located at 2301 University Dr., Newport Beach, CA 92660. The site of restoration varies month to month around Newport Bay. More information will be sent to attendees before the event.

Training, tools and gloves are provided. If desired, bring your favorite gloves. Please bring a water bottle, sturdy shoes, and sun protection.

Please register online at ocbar.org or fill out the form below and return to the OCBA.
