SPEAKER:

Peter Levi
Anti-Defamation League

Please join FLOC, Mommy Esq., and the OCJBA for a presentation from the Anti-Defamation League on how to help our kids understand bullying behaviors related to race, religion, and diversity, so that our kids can become advocates for themselves and their peers. Rabbi Peter Levi, Regional Director for the ADL's Orange County/Long Beach office, will lead this timely presentation on the importance of honing the tools in our parenting toolbox so that we can appropriately handle these issues when they arise. Peter will share ideas about how to have these conversations with our kids and will direct us to strategies and resources to help us have these conversations. Peter will also explain the importance of understanding our own biases, so that we can address them to serve as role models for our kids.

ADL is a leading anti-hate organization. Founded in 1913 in response to an escalating climate of anti-Semitism and bigotry, its timeless mission is to protect the Jewish people and to secure justice and fair treatment for all. Today, ADL continues to fight all forms of hate with the same vigor and passion. ADL is a global leader in exposing extremism and delivering anti-bias education, and is a leading organization in training law enforcement. ADL's ultimate goal is a world in which no group or individual suffers from bias, discrimination or hate.
