

Practical Advice for Novice Attorneys

MCLE Program – Free credits, parking & lunch!

Saturday, January 12, 2019 | Registration 8:30 – 9:00 a.m.

Hit the Ground Running | Neil Pedersen | 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Join Adjunct Professor Neil Pedersen for this unique seminar packed with tips and advice for newer lawyers along with “how to” ideas to make you a profitable asset to any firm – even your own!

Cloud Computing | Jim Vaughn & Jonathan Karchmer | 1:15 – 2:15 p.m.

We'll review best practices for sending and receiving your electronic documents as well as how to handle ransom-ware and what to do if you're hacked.

Motions: To File or Not to File | Patricia Lee-Gulley & Brooke Weitzman | 2:15 – 3:15 p.m.

Learn how to develop strategies for motion practice. Recognize and evaluate factors to make an informed decision on whether to file or not to file.

Social Media: Discovery, Ethics, Evidence & Sanctions | Jeff Koller | 3:30 – 4:30 p.m.

We'll review the pervasive world of social media providing counsel with focused information on its integral presence in the practice of law from an ethical, discovery, evidentiary and practice perspective

MCLE CREDIT: Veritext is a certified California MCLE provider, #14282
This activity qualifies for 2.0 hours of credit under the category of “Ethics” and 5.0 credits for “General.”

RSVP to Career Resources: pdavidson@wsulaw.edu or (714) 459-1106
Western State College of Law | 1 Banting, Irvine, California, 92618