The Young Lawyers Division was created to meet the needs of OCBA members who have been in practice for five years or less. YLD brings together new lawyers to learn the art of lawyering and develop professionalism early in a legal career. There are opportunities to meet socially and to discover what OCBA has to offer new attorneys. The YLD hosts CLE programs, social events and provides opportunities for involvement in community service programs and league sports.

Participating in YLD leadership is a great way to meet other new attorneys and get involved in the Orange County Bar Association.

For further information or questions about the role of YLD Chair-Elect and YLD Chair, please contact Carole Martinez, OCBA Assistant Executive Director, at 949.440.6700, ext. 162 or cmartinez@ocbar.org.
