Building, Ethically Branding, and Being the Best
Entertainment, Media, and Sports Attorney

Practicing sports and entertainment law is complex. Understanding the breadth of legal concepts and niche practice areas, ethical issues, and general administration all require specialized knowledge and experience (even giving and getting referrals in this space is different). Come find out what it takes to succeed while following the license and registration requirements for lawyers to ethically represent sports and entertainment clients as well as the ethical rules that apply to lawyers when contacting prospective clients.
