Sharpening the Axe: Using Discovery Planning to Win at Motion for Summary Judgment

Gain key insights from Plaintiff and Defense Litigators on designing discovery that makes your client the prevailing party. This presentation will cover litigation tactics and discovery planning strategies for success at Motion for Summary Judgment. The Motion for Summary Judgment is the closest most employment attorneys get to trial, most of the time. "MSJ" is a critical battleground that every litigator should plan for from the inception of the case. This presentation will include practical strategies and tips from Plaintiff and Defense perspectives. Presenters will discuss planning and conducting effective discovery, coupled with motion and opposition drafting strategies.
