Want to Help a Vet?
 The Healthcare Law Edition

This program will discuss VA health care in practice and the important updates in the unique resources in health care and VA resources available for veterans. We will cover topics such as Suicide Prevention, ability to get care for specific conditions despite Less than Honorable Discharge, and VA healthcare eligibility. Our clients who are veterans have specific needs of which we need to be aware of how to identify and address, and the additional resources available to them. We will also cover how the VA Mission Act will help veterans and how to become a VA accredited attorney.
