Topics:

A typical case in Orange County probate court is a challenge to a trust on the ground that the Testator/Settlor was either unduly influenced or lacked capacity when s/he made amendment(s).

Beginning with hypotheticals at the drafting attorney's office, our speakers will discuss how to prevent cases from proceeding to litigation, and when the case does proceed to litigation, how to properly build the case through pleading and discovery, including trial preparation, to properly present the case at trial.
