Topics:

Human trafficking is a $32 billion dollar industry worldwide, with an estimated 20 million people living as sex and labor slaves. It is the world's fastest growing criminal enterprise. Surprising to many, it is thriving here in Orange County. Human trafficking fuels organized crime and related criminal activity, endangers public health, facilitates the illegal movement of persons across our borders, burdens law enforcement and our legal system, and most importantly, destroys human lives. Come learn about how human trafficking affects you, and what you can do about it.
