DIRECT AND CROSS EXAMINATION

Thursday, September 15, 2016

A trial is nothing without the testimony of witnesses. Direct examination is the backbone of every case at every trial. Without it, your case will not have any support and cannot stand. Cross-examination is the jackhammer that attacks the foundation upon which your opponent's case stands. Undermine that foundation, and their case tumbles. Join experienced trial attorneys Kimberly Valentine and Peggy Holm as they explore the principles necessary to master these two absolutely critical trial skills.
