

Orange County Bar Association

Community Outreach Committee

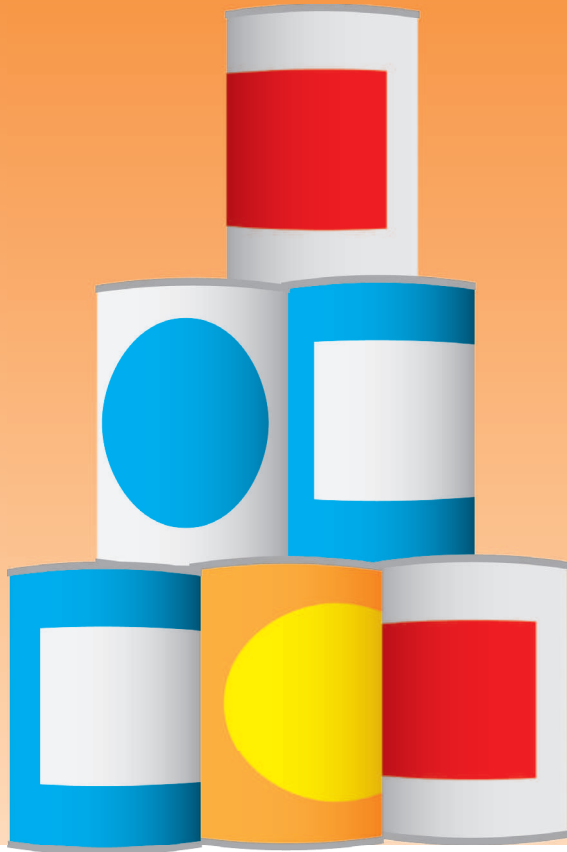

Invites Members to Volunteer at

Fall Food Packaging Event

The OCBA Community Outreach Committee invites you to assist the Community Action Partnership of Orange County Food Bank to help provide relief to those in need.

Spend a morning packing and assembling food items into boxes for delivery to hungry families in our communities.

Event Co-Chairs: Kimberly Trinkaus and Nichole Wong

WHEN:

Saturday, October 17, 2015

8:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.

Attire: Casual (jeans, sweatshirts, no open toe shoes)

WHERE:

The Community Action Partnership

of Orange County Food Bank

11870 Monarch Street, Garden Grove 92841

HOW:

You can participate by sorting, labeling and packing the food in boxes to get them ready for delivery or a variety of other jobs to help the food bank.

WHO:

OCBA Members and their families. Children aged 14-17 years can volunteer with parents. All those under 18 require Warehouse Liability forms.

WHY:

Over 450,000 Orange County residents are at risk of hunger EVERY MONTH. Of these individuals 42% are children.

Fall Food Packaging Event: Saturday, October 17, 2015

Registration is required. Please register by Thursday, October 8, 2015. Space is limited, so sign up early.

Volunteers will receive confirming information prior to the event.
