Donations Drive for Survivors of Human Trafficking Benefitting Orange County Human Trafficking Task Force

An OCBA Community Outreach Committee Activity

Priya Navaratnasingham and Meg Smith, Event Co-Chairs

February through March 30, 2015

The OCBA is collecting emergency supplies for survivors of human trafficking. The donations drive will benefit the Orange County Human Trafficking Task Force (OCHTTF), a collaboration of agencies working together to protect victims, prosecute offenders, prevent further perpetration of the crime, educate the public, and build partnerships.

The following emergency supplies are urgently needed:

Diapers	Body wash	Backpacks
Baby wipes	Soap	Socks
Women's vitamins	Toothpaste	Pay-as-you-go phones
Laundry detergent	Toothbrushes	Starbucks cards
Shampoo/Conditioner	Hairbrushes/Combs	Visa gift cards collection
	Baby Bottles

Online donations can be made on Amazon.com. Click on "Find a Wish List" and type OCBA Community Outreach. Please note shipping charges may apply for orders less than $35.
