

Associate General Counsel

LOCATION

Orange County, California

POSITION DESCRIPTION

A profitable and growing global manufacturing company, with 12 manufacturing facilities around the world, seeks an Associate General Counsel who will report to the General Counsel and work closely with the President and the senior leadership team to drive ethics and compliance processes and procedures company-wide. The Associate General Counsel - a new position in a recently created function at the company's global headquarters - will be at the forefront of raising awareness of compliance, and designing a program to do so. He/She must possess creative thought and judgment on a broad range of legal and compliance matters, as well as the ability to conceive, implement and monitor processes and procedures.

The Associate General Counsel must have at least 3-6 years of relevant legal experience handling complex compliance, transactional, corporate and general legal issues. He/She must be admitted to practice in at least one U.S. jurisdiction. Experience with FCPA and Anti-Corruption internal control reviews is preferred, but not essential.

Candidates must have an undergraduate degree and J.D. from a recognized law school.

A comprehensive and competitive compensation package will be offered.
