

Chapman University is hiring for the position of Associate Director for Law Library Services at the Fowler School of Law. The position is primarily responsible for supervising the public service points; managing and enhancing library services, including the faculty services program and legal research instruction; and participating in strategic planning for the Law Library.

Key Qualifications: JD from an ABA accredited institution. MLS from an ALA-accredited institution or an equivalent relevant advanced degree. Six years of experience in academic law libraries with a history of increasing responsibilities. Demonstrated supervisory and management skills.

To apply: Candidates may complete an online application at <https://chapman.peopleadmin.com/postings/15104> or email a cover letter and resume to cujobs@chapman.edu.

For additional information about the University, department or position, visit www.chapman.edu.

Chapman University is an equal opportunity employer committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive academic community. The University is dedicated to enhancing diversity and inclusion in all aspects of recruitment and employment. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, military and veteran status, marital status, pregnancy, genetic information or any other characteristic protected by state or federal law. The University is committed to achieving a diverse faculty and staff and encourages members of underrepresented groups to apply.