

Kasdan Turner Thomson Booth LLP is seeking an Associate Attorney with 5+ years of litigation experience for their Irvine, California office

The ideal candidate will possess the following qualifications:

- Active member of the California State Bar in good standing
- Significant experience drafting pleadings, motions, discovery requests/responses
- Strong legal research skills
- Ability to undertake responsibility for files with Partner oversight
- Construction defect experience is preferred

We are looking for a motivated and sharp attorney with strong analytical skills and sound judgment. The ideal candidate will work well in a collaborative team and on individual case assignments, be organized, and be able to independently prioritize tasks within their assigned cases.

We offer a rewarding opportunity for an attorney seeking to further their litigation experience in a dynamic and collaborative environment, plus a competitive salary and benefits package.

The ideal candidate should be fully vaccinated. Please provide a cover letter, resume, and salary requirement.

Kasdan Turner Thomson Booth LLP is one of the most experienced and successful construction defect law firms in the Western United States, with offices in California, Arizona, and New Mexico. Our firm has a long-established reputation for handling construction defect claims, class actions, and consumer litigation, having recovered more than $1.2 billion for our clients.

All COVID-19 precautions are being taken at our office that align with state and CDC requirements, including wearing face coverings, social distancing, checking temperatures and hand sanitizing.