

Associate Attorneys

Description

Associate attorneys for our Glendale and Orange County offices will handle defense work in all phases of federal and state civil rights litigation, including responsive pleadings to complaints, written and oral discovery, motions for summary judgment, trial preparation and trial and/or trial assistance and appeals. The research-intensive motions practice requires a comprehensive understanding and application of evolving civil rights law, and attorneys must engage in extensive communications with clients, percipient witnesses, and expert witnesses.

Qualifications

Minimum 1-5 years' experience

Familiarity with Section 1983 litigation preferred

High academic credentials

Strong research and writing skills

Familiarity with federal and state litigation rules

Benefits

Salary commensurate with experience

Paid medical and dental

401(k) plan to eligible employees

Paid parking