POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT - Associate Attorney, Litigation

Piskel Yahne Kovarik, PLLC, a prominent litigation law firm serving the Western United States, is seeking an associate attorney with one to five years of experience to work in its Brentwood area office. This position will allow the attorney the ability to work on a wide range of challenging legal matters for clients doing business in the West and beyond. Our attorneys are actively engaged in the practice of litigation involving real estate, construction, employment, and general business disputes, and personal injury. As an associate attorney at PYK, you will have hands-on responsibility for cases and clients, as well as top-notch training and mentoring while contributing to solving problems, resolving disputes, and acquiring courtroom experience. An ideal candidate would exhibit high academic achievement, be a self-starter, take initiative and be able to work well independently.

About Piskel Yahne Kovarik, PLLC

PYK is headquartered in Spokane, Washington and was founded in 2012 and represents a wide range of clients including contractors, property owners, property management companies, landlords, and various other businesses and individuals.

Our partners and principal attorneys actively mentor associate attorneys with an eye toward professional growth and ever-greater responsibility. Our team is collegial, creative, and driven, and is known for high-quality work and excellent client representation.

Our attorneys serve on numerous boards for industry groups, non-profit organizations, and local and state bar associations. They are recognized as some of the best attorneys in Washington, recognized regularly by publications such as Super Lawyers and Coeur d'Alene Living. We offer a friendly, collaborative, casual environment, a competitive compensation package, health insurance and a 401K. Our attorneys are provided with tools to work remotely when needed, based on firm and client needs.
