

Contract Attorney – Construction Law

Beltzer Bangert & Gunnell LLP

Orange County, CA or Los Angeles County, CA

Beltzer Bangert & Gunnell LLP is a Denver-based, boutique construction law firm founded on construction law expertise and industry experience. Our clients include leaders in the construction industry and rely on us to litigate, arbitrate, or otherwise resolve complex disputes related to construction projects, draft and negotiate high-stakes high-dollar construction agreements, and advise project teams on high profile construction projects. Our work is intellectually challenging and fast-paced, requiring the highest level of performance and top talent.

BBG has an immediate opening for a litigation attorney with transactional experience, on a contract basis, with experience in complex litigation. Excellent professional and academic credentials are required. This is a remote position with flexible work hours.

WHAT YOU WOULD DO:

- Litigation, arbitration, mediation, dispute resolution board actions, and other dispute resolution related to construction contracts and/or projects
- Draft and negotiate construction agreements
- Provide guidance on project-related legal matters including risk management and compliance with regulations
- Strategize with project teams before, during, and after the construction phase of projects

WHAT IS EXPECTED:

- 5-8 years of litigation experience
- Must be admitted to practice law in California
- Familiar with standard construction-industry form agreements, such as EJCDC, AIA, ConsensusDocs, DBIA, CMAA
- Experience supporting project contract administration
- Working knowledge of relevant construction-industry topics such as mechanic's lien law, including substitution bonds, public contracting generally, insurance applicable to construction projects, and payment and performance bonds

WHAT WE OFFER:

- $150 - $200 per hour based on experience
- Flexible Work Hours and Location

HOW TO APPLY:

Please send a resume and cover letter to our recruiting team at careers@bbglaw.com.
