

Real Estate Attorney

Express Employment is seeking an experienced Real Estate Attorney to join our established and growing practice. The ideal candidate will have 3-5 years of transactional real estate experience, excellent drafting skills, and the ability to manage matters independently while working collaboratively with our legal team. This is a full-time position at our Costa Mesa, CA office.

Responsibilities include:

- Drafting and reviewing purchase and sale agreements, leases, easements, and related documents
- Advising clients on title issues, escrow, land use, and related legal concerns
- Coordinating due diligence, closings, and related transactional tasks
- Working closely with clients to provide clear, practical guidance

Qualifications:

- J.D. from an accredited law school
- Active California Bar membership in good standing
- 3 years of real estate law experience (transactional focus preferred)
- Strong writing, analytical, and communication skills
- Ability to work efficiently and manage multiple matters simultaneously
- Commitment to excellent client service

We Offer:

- Competitive compensation
- Benefits package
- Supportive and professional work environment
- Opportunities for growth within the firm

If you are a motivated and detail-oriented attorney looking to advance your career in real estate law, we welcome your application.

To apply, please contact mina.kalani@Expresspros.com