Workers' Compensation: An Overview from Employer's Perspective

This program will provide an overview of the Workers' Compensation system in California from the employer's point of view. It will cover insurance requirements for employers, notices to be provided to the employees, and the process of filing a claim. The presentation will also cover the life-time of a typical workers' compensation claim from start to finish and will provide tips to the employers on how to handle work related injuries and mitigate exposure.
