Evidence Issues in Employment Litigation Investigations

This webinar will explore evidentiary issues that frequently arise in employment litigation from the discovery phase through trial or arbitration, including battles over discovering past medical and employment records, employment disability records, disability insurance records, workers' compensation records, "Me Too" evidence, personnel files of the Plaintiff and other employees, evidence of discrimination or conduct against other employees, evidence of similar acts in the workplace, and hearsay evidence. The speakers will discuss when and why these disputes arise, the issues underlying the disputes, and how to address them to best serve your client.
